LinkedIn LEARNING

Hi, MO Learning at the State of Missouri has given you free access to LinkedIn Learning.

Unlock learning experiences taught by real-world professionals. Bite-size or in-depth, how and when it works for you.

Get started

You will receive an email (see picture to the left) with an activation link.

Your State of Missouri email address will be associated with your MO Learning account.

You can login at

<https://www.linkedin.com/learning/> using Google Chrome or Microsoft Edge if:

- You aren't accessing the account from a device connected to the state network
- You do not have the email or misplaced it
- The link in the email is not working or it is expired

For ITSD Consolidated Agencies, click on the ITSD-SSO option.

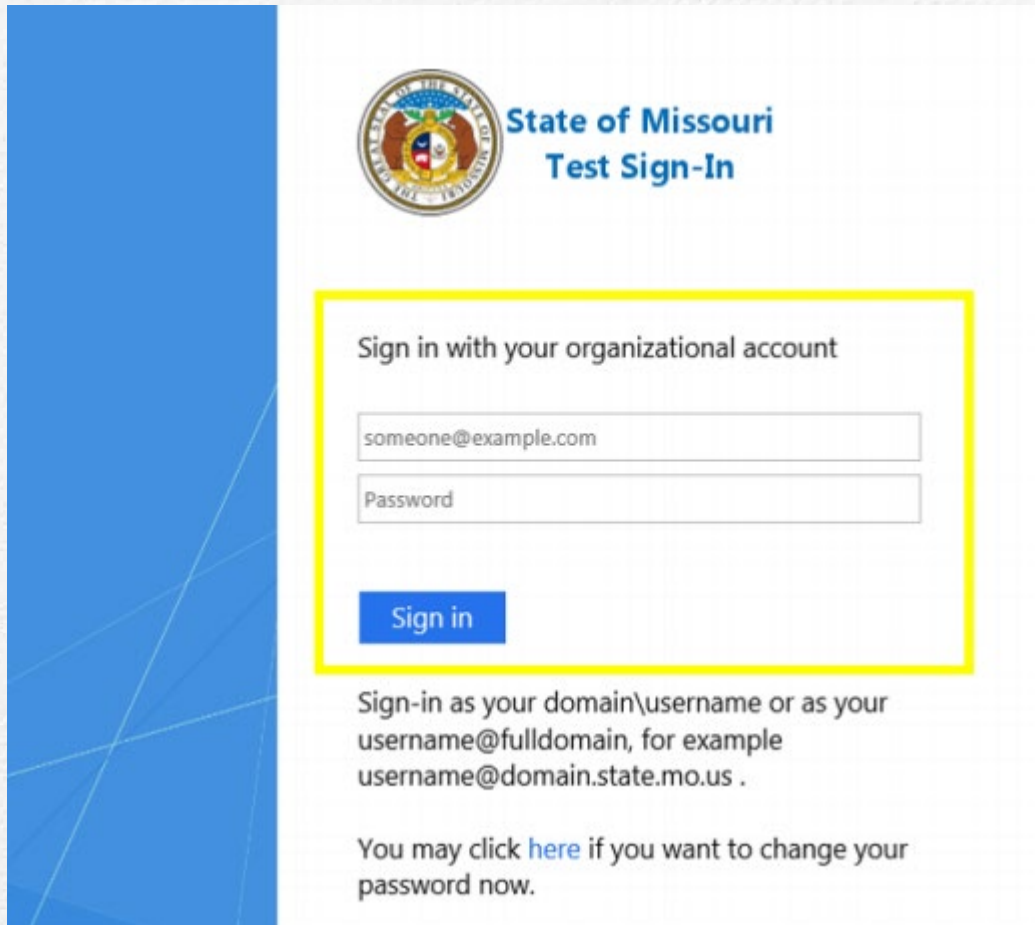

This will verify why type of user your are, and log you in automatically on the State of Missouri Sign In page.

If you are not connected to the state network, you will have to sign in. Steps are included for that on the next page.

Not using a device connected to the state network

If you are using a device that is not connected to the state network or are using a shared device, you will need to log into the network with your State Network ID.

Sign in

Sign-in as your domain\username or as your username@fulldomain, for example username@domain.state.mo.us .

You may click here if you want to change your password now.

- Follow the prompts until the State of Missouri Sign-In screen is displayed. This will be available for ITSD consolidated departments.
- Enter the domain for your department (ads, bds, cds), a backslash (\), and your network username on the first line (e.g. bds\SmithT).
- Department domains:
 - ADS – DED, DHE, DIFP, DNR, DOC, DOLIR, DOR, MDA
 - BDS – DESE, DPS, OA
 - CDS – DHSS, DMH, DSS
- Enter your network password on the second line. This is the same password you use to log into your computer.

Option to connect your LinkedIn profile

During the activation process, you have the option to connect your LinkedIn profile to your MO Learning account.

Only learning data will be shared with the State of Missouri. No other data from your LinkedIn profile will be accessible.

The advantage of connecting your profile is the LinkedIn Learning transcript will be reflected on your profile, even if you accept employment elsewhere. This allows you to keep track of what courses you've taken.

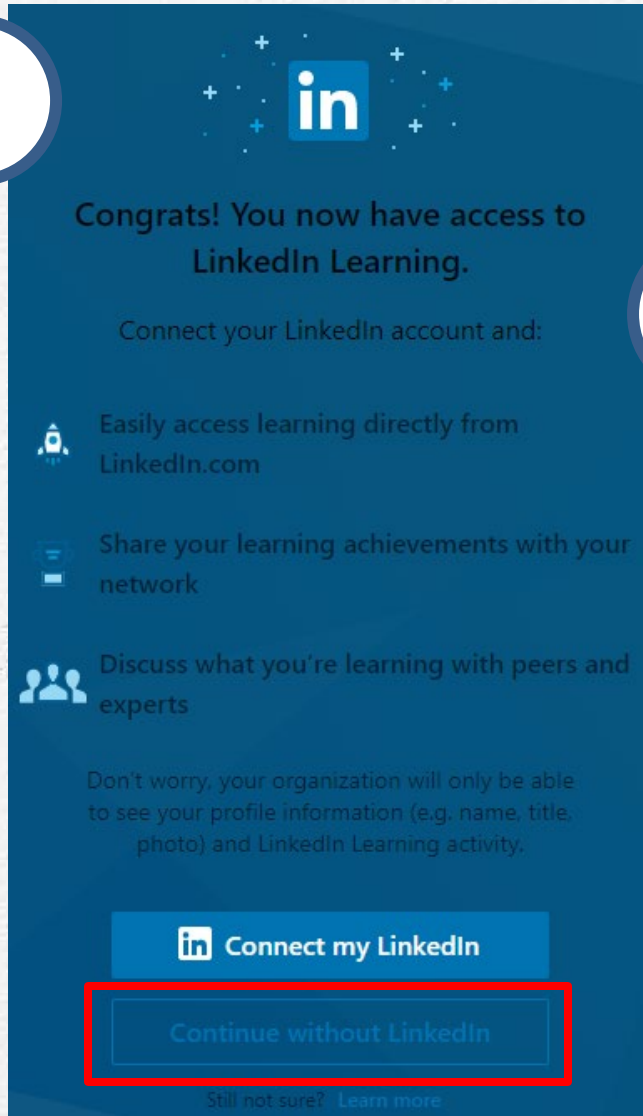

If you do connect a LinkedIn profile you will be required to enter the password for that profile every time you log into MO Learning.

You can connect/disconnect your LinkedIn profile after the initial login.

If you chose not to connect your LinkedIn profile

1

Congrats! You now have access to LinkedIn Learning.

Connect your LinkedIn account and:

- Easily access learning directly from LinkedIn.com
- Share your learning achievements with your network
- Discuss what you're learning with peers and experts

Don't worry, your organization will only be able to see your profile information (e.g. name, title, photo) and LinkedIn Learning activity.

Personalize your profile

1 After you have signed in, the system will ask you to select topics that you are interested in. Click the “Continue” button.

The screenshot shows the LinkedIn Learning interface for selecting business topics. At the top, it says "First, tell us what you're interested in. We'll show you content for the topics you select." Below this is a grid of 20 topic buttons. The selected topics are Leadership, Personal Development, Training & Development, and Career Development. At the bottom, it says "Following 3 skills. Nice job!" and has a "Continue" button.

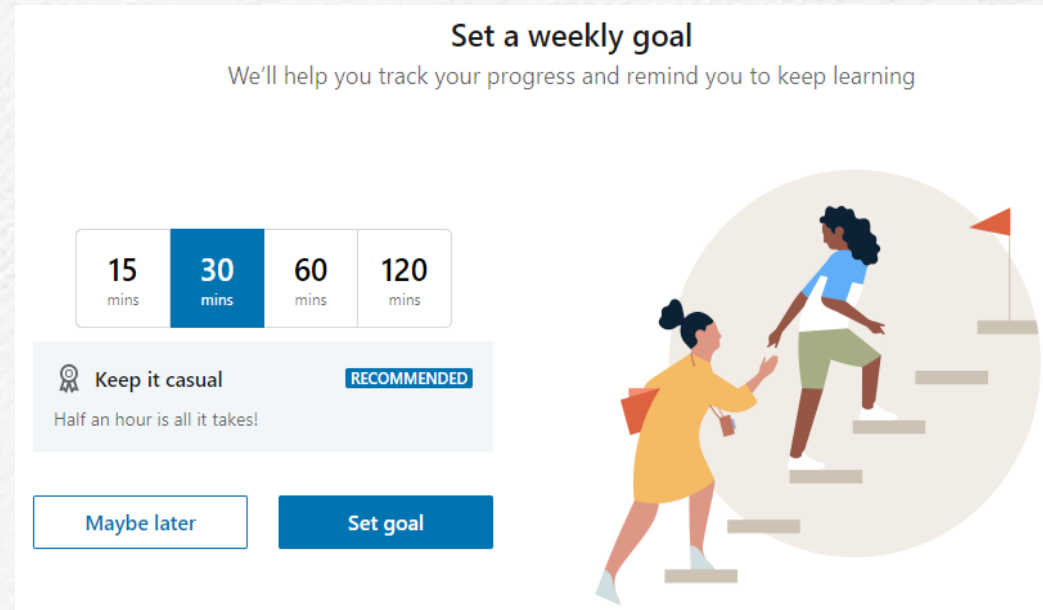

Top business topics
Diversity & Inclusion	Management	Project Management	Leadership	Decision-Making
Organizational Leadership	Personal Development	Communication	Time Management	Personal Branding
Business Analysis	Entrepreneurship	Customer Service	Human Resources (HR)	Finance
Sales	Marketing	Training & Development	E-Learning	Instructional Design
Accounting	Career Development	Career Management

This is to help the system find you content that you would be interested in. You can change these topics later by going to the Settings.

2 You can choose to set a weekly learning goal, but can decline by clicking the “Maybe later” button.

The screenshot shows the "Set a weekly goal" screen. It says "We'll help you track your progress and remind you to keep learning". There are four goal options: 15 mins, 30 mins (RECOMMENDED), 60 mins, and 120 mins. Below the options is a "Keep it casual" option with a ribbon icon and the text "Half an hour is all it takes!". At the bottom are "Maybe later" and "Set goal" buttons. An illustration of two people climbing stairs is on the right.

Begin learning!

The screenshot displays the LinkedIn Learning homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the LinkedIn Learning logo, a search bar, and icons for Home, My Learning, Notifications, Me, and EN. Below the navigation bar, a large video player features a course titled "Inclusive Female Leadership" by Audrey Daniels and Madecraft, with a "NEW" badge and "Released 2 weeks ago" text. To the right of the video player is a "You're all set!" message with the text "We'll show you recommendations based on your choices. Happy learning!" and a "Start learning" button. Below the video player, there is a "Set a weekly goal" section with a progress tracker icon and a "Set a goal" button. A message states "We'll help you track your progress and remind you to keep learning." Below this, a tabbed interface shows "In progress" as the active tab, with a message "Courses in progress will appear here". At the bottom, a "Top picks for you" section displays five course cards: "Diversity, Inclusion, and Belonging" (47m), "Unconscious Bias" (24m), "Inclusive Female Leadership" (40m), "Confronting Bias: Thriving Across Our Differences" (40m), and "Inclusive Leadership" (40m).

Your MO Learning is activated and you are ready to start.

Happy learning!
