For ITSD Consolidated Agencies, click on the ITSD-SSO option.

This will verify why type of user your are, and log you in automatically on the State of Missouri Sign In page.

If you are not connected to the state network, you will have to sign in. Steps are included for that on the next page.

Not using a device connected to the state network

If you are using a device that is not connected to the state network or are using a shared device, you will need to log into the network with your State Network ID.
